

Of oligarchy, and I see the businessmen proliferating
More and more of the old families under new guises.
Please as your conscience, listen to me, do not destroy Entirely what they have done, they are part of History, and all history must live.

Mankind- "I decide this, that their spirit shall not die and we should have the will to help all people achieve,
And look to goals, so that the cream that always Rises should have its reward. The superwealth will have to go.
And the minds and attitudes of the oligarchy has to Change into a more human philosophy so that mankind
Itself, including the oligarchy, does not die.

Science, come talk to me. you are the way we can develop
The means of having mankind continue

Science- " Yes, I understand the system must change its Way of rewarding too few. Science itself has no rewards

And wants no rewards, but the people who are me
Do want to become an oligarchy. This is something I Cannot help. I can hand you ideas, but the people Who have the ideas and produce them, will wind up in

The same position as the old leaders. It is Something that follows only logically and takes no vision

Into the future to see. Forget it now, the computer
Is our last tool for organizing that has been set up on a

Pedestal and worshipped. There is a mentality
Among science people that they can do no wrong, then again

There are some that say I am all wrong and has no way
To improve things that are going on, and some are people

Outside of the oligarchy who are simply afraid of the
