

Don't feel like no happy baby Don't feel I own this town just awaiting a down town bus to make me feel a clown

Used to shout to buddies now I cut that out didn't even hurt them never saw them pout

That baby cried his own thing if they put him on the stand don't take no old meck hero to really make that band

----Refrain----

Some day I'll find that wow The DJ', screaming holy cow couldn't hit the DC please let me bow out now

Besides that the day went just fine, my morning classes are fine, but afternoon seems as though it is really going to suck. One class I played cards in and in the other saw a movie about a wonderful job the Salation is doing for under dogs everywhere.

Wish it was next week really so I could start that gym program, heaven knows I need it. Oh, yes, I've been horny all day long, but all the ward gives me is a headache
