

that,

Did you ever see the view out this window, no that's the wrong angle, like this,
can you see it like
me?

I believe I looked out his window and saw it his way one time, somebody told me if you're good you get to see just like
God

Gentle October
orchids took the ceiling away
on time Melodramatic doves
landed on my shoulder
at the correct moment
And I have my bozo shoes on, pink shoe laces et al, and ready to start into town stilts, but it doesn't matter it seems all to be here right now
