

Mar 24 - Went out yesterday night and was too tired to try.
There is a free poetry reading tonight at Theatre X. I'll probably attend. This afternoon should be a drag, I could always sleep through it though, I feel so lazy.

Mar 27 - Have a bad cold and really feel miserable. I should still makemit to work tomorrow hopefully Mar 28 - Went to work and came back home again because I was still sick. Tomorrow I should be better.

Mar 29 - Made it through work today just fine, it went fast and I had a good time. So it turns out they want me to drive truck, L can dig that allright.

One step from terror person
I stumble across a
pond and fall to my knees and see
myself, screaming
in the middle of
some nowhere paradise
her name a thousand
times,
I flop over in bed awake with a
jolt and know
she has been to see me again in my dreams, she
who I can not touch,
