

Swimmingly with the adopted mongie in House until one day during summer
Vacation when Mrs. noticed both
Mongies making encouragin breakthroughs
Into a new "missing link" plateau.
Strange poltergeistian things begin to happen. Mrs. housewife/professional is horrified.
She tries to get rid of them but supernatural
Powers intervene as the two mongies form
A two brained supernatural spirit being,
And the whole house falls in as usual.
Applause, kudos, talk show spots for our Herione, at last she is cured.

The Earls of the Northland and the shieks Whole clan dance the stomping dance of The Watusi around the banks,
Turning the tides of history again,
Reforming the monetary mass psychological
Rituals. The clean blast of ionized Air made the new men too giddy, and
They lacked purpose enough to control
The ring.
