

Tose messy ramifications left
Like the trail of a sloppy murderer in a
Short story.

The side show guffaws are
Hilarious, one wreck after another
Pulling a circus train four years
At a time; I mean - people actually
Take these to thier bosoms
With real sanctimonious concern, outrage,
With real emotions as a cheap bought
Trollop explains what the event means.

I as a good citizen supposedly
Delegated the fools, not anymore
Into office, but onto the screen;
But I must refuse as a citizen
To accept the responsibility for
Them; because, being of German
Ancestry, I learned a long time ago,
I cannot function under the Burden of fabricated collective guilt,
That is no part of me.
I hereby renounce the collective
Guilt of the future decades off
Me now as an American; I did not Buy the circus train, the explaining
Bimbos, I didn't contract the debts,
I did not put that sideshow on the screen
